

Noble Network of Charter Schools 2017 Annual Report

Dear Friends,

As Chairman of the Board of Directors and Superintendent of the Noble Network of Charter Schools, we are proud to share the results of another extraordinary year.

In the 2016-17 school year, we served 12,000 students and their families across 18 campuses in Chicago. We maintained our top performance in college success for non-selective public high schools through testing on the SAT and ACT, our students graduated at exceptional rates, and 90% of the Class of 2017 matriculated to college this fall. All told, our 2,000 graduates of the Class of 2017 earned over 12,400 college acceptances and a remarkable $438 million in scholarships - fully one third of all scholarships awarded to high school students in the city despite constituting only 10% of the Chicago Public Schools high school population. With students coming to us from every one of Chicago's 77 neighborhoods, the Noble community proves every day that college success can be a reality for students across the city.

We are pleased to report that our connection with excellent regional universities has never been stronger, with graduates this year earning 618 acceptances to the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign, 114 to the University of Michigan, and 28 to Northwestern University. This is in addition to the 745 acceptances to the University of Illinois at Chicago, 618 to Illinois State University, dozens to Ivy League schools, and many more acceptances to excellent universities elsewhere, including Georgetown, Duke, Stanford, and Johns Hopkins.

Fittingly, our alumni are succeeding at rates that are breaking barriers and setting new precedent for public school students from Chicago. We now count over 10,000 alumni in our extended Noble family, with many graduates earning their degrees and beginning to return to our city and finding professional careers.

This year also marked the opening of our newest campus, Mansueto High School, on the Southwest side of Chicago. Named for Joe and Rika Mansueto and reflective of their extraordinary generosity and vision, Mansueto provides a local Noble option to the residents of the Southwest side that previously had to travel large distances to find the right college prep education for their students. Mansueto's official building will open in the fall of 2017, and we look forward to celebrating with their entire school community.

We remain extremely grateful to have such strong supporters, partners, and champions that enable us to do this work. Your commitment is unwavering, and your generous support provides access to opportunity and a better life for thousands of students across Chicago every day. On behalf of the entire Noble family of students, teachers, administrators, and board members, we would like to say thank you.

BAKER COLLEGE PREP

Baker College Prep's mission is that students will become civic-minded college graduates who create positive change in their communities. As part of their civic engagement, students complete a minimum of 70 hours of community service in addition to hosting coat, book, and canned food drives. Part of the advisory curriculum includes the study and discussion of current events and how they impact the communities in which they live. All academic courses focus on equipping students with the tools to persist through college, empowering them to become problem-solvers who can create positive change. Students in Baker's first graduating class are well on their way to achieving this mission.

At Baker College Prep, to BE NOBLE is to commit to positive change in yourself and in your community.

BUTLER COLLEGE PREP

In its short history, Butler College Prep has established itself as a high quality institution serving the Far South Side of Chicago. Butler is proud that the school's reputation as a place that proudly educates the whole child, now precedes itself. One campus offering that helps with character development are the weekly martial arts classes. These provide students with a structure that enforces the development of strong personal values including the following: self-discipline, self-esteem, respect, perseverance, and commitment which will help them be successful in college and as adults. The 2016-17 school year brought Butler College Prep the graduation of its founding class.

At Butler College Prep, to BE NOBLE means that students are incredibly invested in their education and how it impacts their future.

CHICAGO BULLS COLLEGE PREP

Chicago Bulls College Prep uniquely teaches all courses through their discussion-based instructional approach. Students spend the majority of class discussing, questioning, and defending their ideas with evidence. Students deepen their conceptual understanding of complex topics while building their math and literacy skills via high engagement with their peers. They are taught to constantly ask and answer the key question when it comes to deepening academic rigor: "Why?". This method empowers students to continue high-quality learning outside of the classroom. In addition to CBCP's rigorous academic program, students engage in a robust health and fitness program founded on the principles of functional movement. CBCP's high bar with academics, health, fitness, and self-discipline has ensured five classes of graduates with 100% college acceptance. Since 2016, in order to complement a focus on health and fitness, CBCP has partnered with SoulCycle to provide an after-school cycling enrichment that has provided free classes to over 75 students.

At Chicago Bulls College Prep, to BE NOBLE is to display No Fear No Embarrassment.

DRW COLLEGE PREP

DRW College Prep has a continued focus on academic growth, strong school culture, and social-emotional development. Academically, many teachers are incorporating a student-centered, discussion-based model of teaching that pushes students to learn collaboratively. The campus has strengthened school culture by partnering with agencies in the nearby Nichols Tower such as the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Free Spirit Media, and Turning the Page to provide students with enriching opportunities to learn and serve. Finally, DRW College Prep continues to support students' social-emotional growth through the Peer Mediator Team, mentoring partnerships, and advisory curriculum. DRW's Class of 2017 earned a combined total of $5 million in scholarships and grants from colleges and universities across the country.

At DRW, to BE NOBLE is to demonstrate G.R.I.T (growth, reflection, integrity, and teamwork) and to change the game!

After growing up in the Greater Grand Crossing neighborhood on Chicago's South Side, the late Gary Comer went on to become a world-class competitive sailor, founder of the direct merchant company Lands End in 1963, and a great entrepreneur and philanthropist. Gary's passion and dedication to the improvement of lives led to the founding of the Comer Science and Education Foundation. The Foundation's core mission, to improve urban education and the lives of children, was realized with the opening of the Gary Comer Youth Center in May 2006. The center's mission is to provide the support for all of its students to graduate from high school, prepared to pursue college and careers. Two years after the Youth Center's inauguration, Gary Comer College Prep was opened, providing the next step of support to students in their pursuit of a college education.

Gary Comer College Prep Middle School (GCMS) started in 2011 with the goal of developing well-rounded and successful college graduates. As the school has grown, it has continued to recognize the importance of developing students with exceptional strength of character. Through advisory, community service, and partnerships with Big Brothers/Big Sisters and the Gary Comer Youth Center, GCMS is continuing to build scholars who not only honor the greater community, but strive for excellent academic results. Gary Comer College Prep Middle School has done an HBCU tour for eighth graders and continues to do an international trip for eighth graders as well. In order to live up to its vision, GCMS believes that college persistence starts with college exposure.

At Gary Comer College Prep Middle School, to BE NOBLE is to develop well-rounded and successful college graduates with exceptional strength of character.

Hansberry was the first charter in the state of Illinois to become an International Baccalaureate World School. Its mission, while lofty, is simple: We believe our students are unstoppable, so we prepare them through both rigorous college preparatory and internationally minded curricula, which enables them to graduate from our nation's top ranked colleges, strengthen their communities and be agents of change in this world. Hansberry is making great progress towards realizing its mission. The school has over 70% of its alumni who are currently persisting through college. The class of 2017 earned over $12 million in grants and scholarships with two Questbridge scholarship recipients. Additionally, the competitive dance team clinched its third Noble Athletic Conference title and competed in the state sectional. Students at Hansberry are striving for nothing less than success.

At Hansberry College Prep, to BE NOBLE is to inquire, seek knowledge, think critically, communicate effectively, remain principled and open-minded, show care, take risks, find balance and constantly reflect on strengths and weaknesses.

Mansueto High School offers a Spanish Heritage program for native speakers allowing them exposure to high rigor literature in their native tongue beginning in their freshman year. At Mansueto High School, students are taught to live out the school's core values, not just during school and in the building, but rather in all facets of their lives. Students learn early on that it is not enough for teachers, parents, and family members to believe in them; each student, must also believe in him or herself and embody the core values in order to be successful. Mansueto High School's core values are: Collaboration, Resilience, Excellence, and Optimism.

In 2017, Muchin welcomed scholars and families from more than 50 zip codes across Chicago. To cultivate a better understanding of the diversity represented within the school, scholars created celebrations to honor cultural awareness months, including Latinx Heritage and Black History Month. This year, scholars spearheaded a new celebration to recognize Asian American Pacific Islander Heritage Month. These festivities incorporated a week of events, including an interactive tour of Asian countries, a potluck of diverse Asian cuisines, and artistic, thought-provoking exhibitions in our hallways. The week culminated in an artful and spirited school-wide assembly. In addition to cultural diversity, Muchin is proud of its academic diversity. Through a partnership with the Hamilton Education Program, supported by the Gilder Lehrman Institute and Rockefeller Foundation, 100 scholars were invited to experience the award-winning play Hamilton. Three scholars also wrote and were selected to perform an original piece for the audience and play producers.
